ANOTHER REVOLUTIONARY HERO.—The announcement that but a single Revolutionary soldier, Samuel Dunn, of New York, is now living, has brought out the Meadville Republican, which states that another Revolutionary hero is still living in Sandusky, New York. His name is Matthias Bakeman, and he receives a pension from the Government. Being born in 1755, he is now 111 years old, and his daughter, over 80 years of age, keeps house for him. He enjoys excellent health, can walk about, and every Fourth of July fires from his old fowling-piece a salute in memory of auld lang syne.

The Vicksburg (Miss.) Herald, in an article on labor, says it hopes the order of Gen. Wood in relation to feeding the freedmen, will be withheld until it is demonstrated, if ever, that assistance is really needed, and then turn his supplies over to the State authorities for proper distribution. The Herald also intimates that the negro will not work because the Bureau supports him in idleness.

MRS. E. A. HENDERSON is the author of a preparation that is exciting curious attention amongst the public. The preparation acts like a charm, curing the most insidious coughs with magic power. Many citizens of Columbia have used it in their families, and with the most gratifying success. It is a most innocent compound, having no nauseous drug or any ingredient that could possibly prove deleterious to the most feeble constitution. Even infants may take it with perfect safety, and it will soothe their little cough and restore them to ease and comfort. If you are troubled with a cough, cold, hoarseness or impaired voice, try this preparation and be convinced of its efficacy. It will cost you a mere trifle, and save money and much suffering.
